Lord, We pause in this moment, in this day we have never seen before, and will never see again. We honor Your universal presence throughout the world and Your presence with us here in this place.

We are awed in this historic moment by what You have done in the life of Assembly Member-elect Mia Bonta. You have called her to a higher level of public service, and we are thankful that she is prepared.

Touch her ears that she might hear both her constituents and Your voice. Touch her mouth that she may speak when others are silent. Strengthen her feet that she may stand on behalf of those who cannot stand for themselves, even if she must stand alone.

Make justice and truth and fairness and integrity be her banner. Bless her partner in life and service, her husband Rob, and the entire Bonta family, and bless every Member of this Assembly gathered today.

I ask it in the name of One who creates, who sustains, who protects and provides.—AMEN.

Legislative Intent—Assembly Bill No. 824

August 27, 2021

*Sue ParkerChief Clerk of the Assembly
State Capitol, Room 3196
Sacramento, California*

Dear Ms. Parker: The purpose of this letter is to clarify the intent of my Assembly Bill 824.

AB 824 creates a process for students to petition county offices of education and charter public schools to add an advisory student board member to their school boards. As the author of this measure, I respectfully submit this letter to be printed in the Assembly Journal in order to provide clarification on the intent of AB 824 as it relates to a material revision of a school's charter.

In accordance with Education Code Section 47607, charter schools may be required to seek authorizer approval of a "material revision" of their charter. It is not my intent in authoring AB 824 that a charter school's compliance with these provisions should constitute a material revision to a school's charter under the meaning of Section 47607.

Sincerely,

STEVE BENNETT, Assembly Member
Thirty-seventh DistrictLegislative Intent—Assembly Bill No. 7

September 2, 2021

*Sue ParkerChief Clerk of the Assembly
State Capitol, Room 3196

Sincerely,

FREDDIE RODRIGUEZ, Assembly Member
Fifty-second District
